SHOWED KNIFE; EVERYONE FLED

Manilla Has Near Reign of Terror When Augustus Gahimer Appears on Streets.

ARRESTED; BROUGHT HERE

Belated Story of How he Suffered at Hands of Whitecappers is Told.

Augustus Gahimer, the mean man of near Manilla, who broke in for a portion of the limelight here recently, broke one too many times yesterday, when he precipitated a near reign of terror in that town yesterday afternoon. He had all of the residents of the little metropolis frightened so that many were afraid to appear on the streets. A call was sent to Sheriff Bebout and he and Policeman John Wolters went and captured Gahimer. He was brought here and placed in jail where he will await the action of the authorities. It was said today that an insanity commission would be appointed to adjudge him insane as it is believed that he has lost his reason, judging from his actions of late. Gahimer is now in jail and it is said that a commission will probably pass on him tomorrow.

Gahimer was intoxicated yesterday as he usually is and went to Manilla to start a row. When he arrived in the town everybody fled in front of him. He carried a long, dangerous looking knife and brandished it threateningly, all of the Sunday afternoon pedestrians seeking shelter. It will be remembered that Gahimer was released here just a few weeks ago after serving a jail sentence. But now comes a belated story from the Shelbyville Democrat in which it is related how Gahimer suffered at the hands of whitecappers and which is as follows:

Whitecappers visited the home of Augustus Gahimer, near the Rush-Shelby county line in Rush county, last Wednesday night and gave him a terrible beating, according to a belated story that reached this city. Verification of the story was obtained late this afternoon when Mr. Gahimer was reached at his home by telephone. He first declined to give out any information, but after being questioned at length he admitted that he had been taken from his home and severely beaten.

Six men are said to have composed the party that called at his home. In discussing the matter over the telephone today Mr. Gahimer stated that he recognized four of the intruders. He stated that he desired to ascertain the identity of the two remaining members of the party before he put the matter in the hands of the authorities. He said that he could positively hand the names of four of his visitors over to the officers. News of the affair has been guarded very zealously and this accounts for the reluctance shown by the victim in not discussing the affair.

Sensational reports relative to the actions of the victim of the whitecappers have been in circulation in the vicinity of his home for several days. Several days ago he was arrested and taken to Rushville where he was given a fine and costs amounting to $18 after he had entered a plea of guilty to the charge of intoxication. A five-day jail sentence was also added by Judge Sparks. The amount of the fine and costs was paid by his wife following the expiration of the jail sentence.

By his actions at home previous to his arrest Gahimer had furnished the sole topic for conversation in that community. It was charged that he had driven his wife away from home and that she had been compelled to seek a place of refuge at the home of a neighbor. Mrs. Gahimer and her daughter had been compelled to spend one entire night in the barn at their home on account of the wild actions of the husband.

Reports say that when Gahimer returned home from Rushville he again went on a big spree and remained in a state of intoxication for several days. This, so rumor says, caused a spirit of indignation to rise in the vicinity of his home, which eventually ended in the visit of the whitecap party last Wednesday night.

The victim of the affair is a well known German farmer of a prominent family and is a man with many friends, and if the matter is placed in the hands of the authorities and the identity of the members of the party is discovered it will not fare well with them. The penalty attached to the crime of whitecapping is a severe one. A sentence of not less than two years in the State prison with a fine of not more than $2,000 is attached to each conviction.

HERALD BELONGS TO COME BACK CLASS

Unique Andersonville Weekly Editor Suspends Publication For Few Weeks.

HIS BUSINESS INTERFERED

The Daily Republican has been missing the welcome face of the Andersonville Herald, the unique weekly, published in the neck of four counties and said to be the only paper in the United States which is published on a rural route. The exchange editor has been searching through the list patiently each week, expecting the four page sheet to turn up soon and his hunt was rewarded last week. The paper came. It seems that Editor Kaler's avocation has been interfering with his profession, hence the suspension of the business. He explains the irregularity as follows:

After an absence of three weeks we have returned to our case again. No, we have not suspended publication as some have intimated—we fear the wish was father to the thought. It is absolutely necessary that we hold our fall meetings or give up preaching. You do not patronize us liberally enough to make that possible. As we can get no one to operate the paper for us while away we are compelled to suspend until we return. However, we have installed lights and will work of nights and give you more news.

KNOCKS THREE OUT VERY QUICKLY

GREEKS WANTED TO QUARREL

Whole Party Left Today and Twenty-Five American Laborers Arrived to Work on Streets.

It might be entitled "The Thirty-Nine Greeks," the little drama which has been enacted here in just one week and which terminated today when the foreigners, who were imported here last week by the Adams Construction company to work on the streets, left the city. In their place came twenty-five American workmen from Akron, Ohio, who went on duty this afternoon and it is believed that the company will have no trouble with them. The drama began Wednesday morning and the four days following might be termed the main action of the play. On Sunday came the thrilling climax and today the denouement.

The climax yesterday consisted mainly of a knock-down fight in which I. W. Harper, vice president of the construction company, was the principal character. Yesterday afternoon, four or five of the Greeks visited the barn, where the teams are kept and asked to see Mr. Harper. It is said that in settling with one of them an argument arose. The vice-president of the company says that one of them grew excited and made some rather threatening statements, believing that he was not receiving all that was due him. Mr. Harper politely knocked him down.

But all of his Grecian friends were not to stand by and see their fellow countryman handled so roughly, so one of them took up the argument. He was promptly "floored," according to eye witnesses. The third one took up the next round and he was given the same treatment by Mr. Harper, so say men in the barn who saw the encounter. The others in the party were not brave enough to take the same medicine and they departed, in fact they ran.

After many gesticulations and few harangues, the thirty-nine Greeks boarded a special car with all of their bags and baggage and left the city this afternoon. About the same time, twenty-five Americans arrived and immediately went to work on the streets. The company expects to make great progress with the work now with the addition of good laborers.

BARELY ESCAPES DEATH

Pink Brown Recovering From Very Trying Experience.

Pink Brown is just now recovering from a very trying experience which he had Friday night, when he was awakened to find his room full of gas. He barely was able to get out of bed and stagger to his door and open it. He fell into the hall and laid there all night, where he was found next morning and revived. He left the gas burning and the blaze had blown out.

COMMANDERY NOTICE.

FOUR ASPIRANTS APPEAR IN RACE

As Many Names Mentioned For the County Superintendent's Office Soon to be Vacant.

ALL ARE SCHOOL TEACHERS

Orlando Randall Will Hand Resignation to Commissioners Thursday on Account of Poor Health.

It has been rumored and generally known for the past week that Orlando Randall, county superintendent of the schools, would resign his position, upon his return from a visit in New Mexico. He arrived home Saturday and has made his intentions public. He will hand his resignation to the county commissioners next Thursday and it will be necessary for the township trustees to elect a successor as soon as possible. It is said that they will meet the first of next month and make the election. Already four candidates for the job have appeared on the horizon.

The four men who are being considered for the position and who have made it known that they would gladly accept the position, are all school teachers at present and were all aspirants for the place when Mr. Randall was chosen to fill out W. O. Headlee's unexpired term. The men whose names are mentioned for the position are: John Geraghty, principal of the Moscow schools; Alfred Hall, principal of Gings schools; W. A. Stockinger, instructor in the local high school, and Chester M. George, principal of the New Salem schools. All are conceded on equal footing in the race.

Mr. Randall is resigning his position to go to Roswell, New Mexico, on account of his health. He has a position there as an agent for an air pump and is anxious to get into his new work as soon as possible. He has been in the office for almost two years, having been elected to fill out the term of Mr. Headlee. His four year term of office would have expired next June, when it will be necessary for the trustees to elect a new superintendent, so that the man who is chosen now will have the office until that time.

NEARING COMPLETION.

Work on the new Christian church at Gwynneville has been progressing rapidly during the past few weeks. The brick work is all completed and the slate roof will be put on next week. It is believed the church will be ready for the dedicatory services about the first of the year.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

A marriage license was granted to Roy Glover and Miss May Hunter this morning.

A marriage license was issued today to John Richardson and Miss Ruby Willis.

NEED NO CHECK REINS.

(New Castle Courier.) They say that Rushville streets will be so brightly lighted that the natives will have to wear blinders.

Mrs. Harriet M. Martin, of Newcastle, N. H., who is ninety-three years old, is the oldest "office girl" in the world, it is believed. For many years she has been in charge of a doctor's office in that town.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and probably Tuesday. Warmer tonight.

WILL DEDICATE CHURCH

Rev. J. W. Turner Will Preach at the Pleasant Ridge M. E. Church.

The Pleasant M. E. church will be appropriately dedicated next Sunday, November 6. The Rev. J. W. Turner, pastor of the St. Paul M. E. church, will preach the dedicatory sermon in the morning at ten o'clock. Dinner will be served in the basement of the church and a great day is planned by the members of the congregation. A special musical program will be rendered.

JOHN FINLEY WAS NOT TO BE OUTDONE

Lon Kennedy Buys Motorcycle to Deliver Mail and he "Goes Him One Better."

MAKES ROUNDS IN BRUSH AUTO

Lon Kennedy, a local mail carrier, purchased a motorcycle to make his daily trips and he was lord high king of all at the postoffice. He has had his "go-devil" for several weeks and the other carriers have envied him, because he can complete his route and be back in the city by 9 o'clock in the morning. But they were not to be outdone, at least John Finley, another carrier, was not. He stood the grinding oppression as long as he could—that is until it went to his head. Then he raised the money and bought an automobile. He purchased a little Brush machine and now he is d-e-e-lighted and says he will never drive a common horse again. Everything ran smoothly until last Thursday, when something broke, down near Gowdy. John never knew but he is certain that something broke. He expects to be back in his runabout tomorrow and he has not given up his faith in it yet.

"MEMBERS DAY" IS VERY IMPRESSIVE

Large Class of New Members Are Taken Into the St. Paul M. E. Church.

BEGINS SERIES OF SERMONS

One of the most impressive scenes in the history of the St. Paul M. E. church was witnessed by a large congregation Sunday morning. In accordance with the rules of the church a class of between thirty-five and forty was taken into the church and twenty-five received the sacrament of baptism, after which all were received into the fellowship of the church. The remaining members of the class had previously been baptized. The service was conducted by the Rev. J. W. Turner in a most beautiful and impressive manner. He impressed the audience with the thought that the church will live.

Sunday being "New Members Day" the pastor preached the first of a series of Sunday evening sermons at night on the topic, "A Great Question." The practical sermon was addressed principally to the new members and it was attempted to bring out the idea that man, after once becoming a Christian, can fall and can be saved also, if he wills. The remainder topics will be: "A Great Physician;" "A Great Contract" and "A Great Promise."

TONIGHT'S NIGHT OF ALL THE NIGHTS

Police Are Making Extra Precautions to Safeguard Against Depredations on Property in City.

EXTRA MEN WILL BE ON FORCE

Many Parties and Social Gatherings Are Planned—Usual Crowd on Streets Expected.

Tonight's Hallowe'en. From present indications it would seem that there will be great doings in Rushville this evening. Scores of parties and social gatherings are scheduled and there will be the usual street demonstration and in addition every hall in the city has been engaged for dances.

The youngsters are preparing for the night which strikes terror to the heart of many. Nervous systems will be severely shocked, as porch furniture and movable property left unprotected will be on the move. The police say they will permit every one to have a good time, but that does not necessarily mean that no one will be prosecuted for the destruction of property. Frolickers are warned against committing depredations.

The business streets for years have been crowded and packed by those in mask and by spectators. As a rule the spectators are the first upon the scene. They have not long to wait until the fun begins.

The police are planning to keep a strict vigilance out all over the city tonight. They expect to make arrests where any depredations on city property is being made. City Marshal Harlow said this morning that there would be several special policemen but the exact number he did not know.

GIVES STORY OF CUPID AND PSYCHE

Mrs. Donnan Also Gives Brief Review of Rostand's "Chanticleer—Idea Not New One.

MENTION'S POE'S RECOGNITION

Mrs. May W. Donnan's study class in "Legends in Literature" held its regular meeting Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Donnan gave the story of "Cupid and Psyche" as first told in "The Golden Ass" of Apuleius; showed how the subject and its variations had been treated in poetry and the most illustrious representations in art—that the story is a beautiful fiction of suggestive quality, fulfilling its artistic purpose as a symbol touching some simple philosophy that will lead to right and useful living.

In a preliminary talk Mrs. Donnan called attention to America's belated recognition of Edgar Allen Poe; also to the college system of exchange professorship which has resulted in much good feeling between nations.

There was a review of M. Rostand's "Chanticleer;" a comparison to the "Birds" of Aristophanes, written about 400 B. C. showed that the idea of a play in which animals talk is not a new one, but, Mrs. Donnan said that Rostand's play is fresh, ingenious and amusing, bristling with literary satire and inspired by genuine love and knowledge of nature. A moral is to be found in the splendid courage of the disillusioned hero and the whole play teaches a lesson of strenuous virtue.

COUNTY NEWS.

Glenwood.

Dr. Smith of the First M. E. church at Connorsville preached at the M. E. church here on the theme "Love." He showed clearly throughout his whole sermon that love should be the actuating motive in everything that was good. The 13th chapter of the 1st Cor. proves beyond doubt that one might be burned at the stake and yet lack that one thing "love" and be lost.

Dr. Jamieson of the Rushville U. P. church preached as usual at the U. P. church here. His sermon was convincing and powerful.

Walter Combs has gone into the con dog business. His stock consists of two dogs now, but he has more contracted and they will be on in a few days.

The streets have been graded and lawns have been made. Never before has the town board been so clever to the people along whose property the sidewalks have been built.

It looks like Don Brooks was going to start a stone yard at A. P. Reynolds' store, but he will haul the stone home in the course of time. Everything will look all right when it has been cleaned up. The store room has been lowered two feet.

Coal was in great demand here lately. The snowstorm was quite severe for a short spell.

Frank Smith, a mechanic working on Mr. Lewark's residence took sick one day last week and went to his home in Rushville. It was learned later that it was only a severe cold.

Earl Stevens called at the I. & C. station Sunday afternoon for a minister, who was to preach at the Saines Creek church in the afternoon and night.

Everybody that enters the voting booth should not forget to cast their vote for Nathan Weeks, who in turn will vote for Beveridge, for the following reasons: That Beveridge has always been found on the side of the people and not on the side of special interests. He has been in the senate long enough to gain recognition. He must be on the side of right because so many corporations and trusts are fighting him. Some in his own party do not agree with him as to the tariff problem.

Ed McGraw is erecting a barn on his premises north of A. P. Reynold's store.

The Phil Wilk company were a few days constructing the stone road from Orange to this place.

T. C. Rees is very busy looking after his interests in the J. B. Colts lighting business.

Mrs. Margaret Vandivier and daughter Charlotte have returned from a five weeks stay at Martinsville and Sharpville.

Daniel Laughlin took a $72 hog down to Richland township to Chas. Fisher. He drove 40 miles that day.

Orlando Nichols transacted business at Indianapolis one day last week.

Mrs. Harwell was shopping at Rushville one day last week.

We are glad to have such citizens as Greenup Thompson. It is a very sure thing we would not need any marshal.

How strange a thing it is that some who are addicted to the habit of strong drink will spend their last cent for drink even if we have "local option laws." There is nothing the matter with the law, but the execution of the law. The officers fail to do their duty. So many say there is more whiskey drank now than before when the saloons were running full blast. So many of us are too delicate about such things. The temperance people must not let the local option law be repealed by any legislature. The whiskey and beer people are fighting it to a finish. They are bent on deluding the people so they will become blinded to their best interests. Why does the whiskey interest stand up and boast of selling more whiskey and beer since the going into effect of the local option law. No one need try to prove that whiskey is a necessity in the business world, or the private life or the government or religious world, for so many people have been ruined and destroyed in each of the above avenues of life.

The telephone industry three years ago furnished employment for more than five times as many persons as telegraphy.

COLLECTIONS OF BIBLES.

In the salesroom of the American Bible Society in New York cases are filled with duplicate copies of original books and manuscripts. The fact that the building, a wooden structure occupying a city block, is not fire-proof is the reason why the interesting collection owned by the society is at present housed at the Lenox library. This collection contains editions of the Bible in more than 150 languages and dialects. Of English versions and revisions there are approximately 5000 volumes exclusive of the manuscripts.

Here you will see one of the few "Vinegar Bibles," Oxford, 1716, in which a printer's mistake has been immortalized, as in the "Breeches Bible." There is a facsimile of the Bible printed on white satin which was presented to the Empress Dowager of China in 1894 by 10,000 Christian women. There is a copy of the Bible done into the Mongolian dialect by Schereschewsky, a cripple, who also did it into Calmuck. There is a copy of the "Mazarin Bible," the first book printed from movable metal types in two volumes, which appeared about the year 1455 and the first recognized copy of which was discovered in the library of Cardinal Mazarin—hence the title. It is called the "Gutenberg Bible," from the name of the printer, and again termed the "Forty-two Line Bible," from the number of lines in each column of its pages. Copies of the several editions of the Gutenberg Bible have been sold for sums which would procure nearly 100,000 Bibles now printed by the American society.

There are also copies of the Douay version of the Bible used by Roman Catholics, of the translation from the Latin Vulgate made by the English college at Reims, of the English version of the Scriptures now in common use and of the revised edition, the work of English and American scholars, which appeared in 1885. According to the terms of the agreement then entered into no other revision was to be published until after fourteen years, so it was not until the summer of 1901 that the American Standard edition of the revised edition was given out.

Within the last ten years the Methodist church in the Philippines has grown to a membership of thirty thousand, and five hundred Filipinos are conducting preaching services.

APATHY MARKS THE KENTUCKY CAMPAIGN

But this Is Not The Only State Thus Noted.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 31.—While campaign orators in both political parties usually overestimate the size of their audiences, and are not always the most accurate judges of the enthusiasm and the interest shown by the voters, yet a number of speakers for the Democrats and Republicans alike have been frank enough to admit that in the present campaign in Kentucky there appeared to be great apathy and lethargy among the voters in the country districts.

Few speakers in either party have been able to arouse any considerable enthusiasm or interest.

Of course, such speakers as Representatives Ollie M. James and A. O. Stanley and the various Democratic candidates for the gubernatorial nomination always have good crowds wherever they may go. Among the Republicans, United States Senator William O. Bradley is always heard by a large and enthusiastic crowd. But such men as James and Bradley would draw big audiences whether a campaign was going on or not. The average campaign spellbinder, however, has had a tough row of stumps in Kentucky this fall. It is said that the voters do not appear to want to listen. They seem to know all they want to know on the subject.

This undoubtedly means something, but it is difficult to say exactly what it does mean. Reports from other sections of the country would indicate that there is also great apathy in other states.

A STRANGE CASE

There Are Two Stories Told of This Affair at Paducah.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 31.—Alleging that at a drinking bout in the houseboat of Phil Fields he was compelled at the point of a knife to sign a check for $750, after which he was unwillingly conducted to a hospital banquet and finally made his escape by swimming a bayou and tramping across fields for miles, Dr. Frank Shemwell of Birdswell filed suit in the Livingston circuit court against James R. Chandler, a wealthy farmer, for $10,000 damages.

In an interview Chandler says Dr. Shemwell was guilty of malpractice on his wife and voluntarily gave him the check for damages.

The plaintiff alleges extortion, and that he was impaired in health from exposure. Both are prominent citizens of Livingston county.

They Will Not Come Back. Indianapolis, Oct. 31.—Neither Colonel Roosevelt nor Colonel Bryan will be heard again in Indiana during the present campaign. The officials of both the state committees here have appealed to the two colonels to come to Indiana this week, but both have replied that it will be impossible for them to devote any more time than they have to Indiana.

Gave Son an Open Field. Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Captain W. H. May has made formal request that his name be stricken from the ballot as a Democratic candidate for councilman. His son Charles is a candidate for the same office on the fusion ticket, and the veteran horseman did not desire to make the race for that reason.

Cold Does Not Deter Them. South Bend, Ind., Oct. 31.—The change of seasons has little effect on Notre Dame students. Even now they are taking their daily plunge in St. Mary's lake. Last season the swimmers took their plunges daily up to and including Dec. 4, when ice formed, and expect to repeat the record this year.

Verdict for Government In Fire Trespass Suit

In an action for fire trespass on the Black Hills National Forest brought by the United States against the Missouri River and Northwestern Railroad, the jury has awarded damages to the Government not only for the loss of merchantable timber but also for the destruction of unmerchantable young growth.

This is regarded by Government officials as establishing a very important precedent. So far as is known at the U. S. Department of Agriculture, it is first time that any court has recognized what foresters call the "expectation value" of young growth as furnishing a basis for the award of damages. The difficulty in the way of such an award in the past has been that there was no way to prove to the satisfaction of the courts the money value of the loss suffered.

The award in the South Dakota case followed the presentation of evidence as to the cost of work in reforestation which the Government is actually doing in the Black Hills.

The amount claimed for the young growth burned was $12 an acre, and the claim under this item was allowed in full by the jury. The total amount of damages claimed was $3,728.85, of which $2,634.45 was for merchantable timber destroyed or injured by the fire.

It is recognized by foresters that the cost of artificial reforestation will not always furnish a fair basis for estimating the damage to forest reproduction. Where new growth can be expected by natural sowing from seed-trees on the ground within a short time, artificial planting or sowing is an unnecessarily expensive method. To meet such cases what are known as "yield tables" are being prepared. By the use of these the loss can be shown in terms of the final crop and the time necessary to produce it.

Thus, if it is known that ten thousand feet of timber per acre can be cut once in seventy years, it is easy to calculate the value of the crop when it is ten years old by discounting from its value when mature. In European countries where forestry has been long practiced this method is regularly applied in selling, condemning, or estimating damages on forest property. It is also used abroad in insurance, which would be impracticable if there were not both an accepted basis for determining the loss suffered and a reasonably accurate knowledge of the hazard involved.

In Norway, people who are not vaccinated are not allowed to vote at an election.

Has Plan to Avoid Wrecks

A railroad man here who has been studying out a plan to prevent a repetition of the horrible, traction wrecks recently reported in Indiana declares that he has hit upon a plan that will prevent wrecks on a curve.

For instance, if the track ran in the general direction of north and south and had a sharp curve he would have electrical signals on each side of the curve, say a quarter or a half mile apart. If a northbound mixed in their orders and were approaching each other—due to meet with a crash on the curve—this system of signals would prevent the crash and would stop the cars a considerable distance from each other.

The signal idea is to have a semaphore both north and south of the curve. If the northbound car was approaching the curve it would strike a contact point and thus set the signal at the other end of the curve. If a south-bound car was coming the crew would immediately see the danger signal and stop. Then the cars would approach each other on a straight track and it would be an easy matter to see the danger of a collision and stop.

The plan seems a feasible one and one that could be installed without much expense. It would be certain to set signals on each side of a curve and warn an approaching car from one direction that another was approaching from the other direction. In this manner both crews would know they were nearing each other and wrecks on sharp curves would be things of the past.

AN AMERICAN IS THE BIG WINNER

Moissant Takes Choice Prize of Aviation Meet.

FLEW AROUND LIBERTY STATUE

Chicago Flyer Wins the $10,000 Ryan Prize Handily From Englishman and Frenchman and Is Received by the 40,000 Spectators With an Acclaim That Reminded Many of Old Days When Horse Racing Was a Sport.

New York, Oct. 31.—John Moissant of Chicago exploded upward from the international aviation meet at Belmont park late Sunday afternoon, and flew a fifty-horsepower Bleriot from Belmont park west by south seventeen miles in an air line to and around the Statue of Liberty and back to the park, thirty-four miles in all, in 34 minutes, 38.4 seconds, for a cash prize of $10,000 donated by Thomas F. Ryan, father of Allan A. Ryan, manager of the meet, for the speediest trip to the statue and back during the aviation meet.

Claude Grahame-White, who on Saturday won the international speed race in his 100-horsepower Bleriot, made the trip from the park to the statue and return successfully an hour earlier than Moissant visited the bronze lady, but it took the Englishman's 100-horsepower machine almost a minute longer than it did Moissant's fifty-horsepower of the same design. Grahame-White's time for the thirty-four miles was 35 minutes, 21.3 seconds. Just three minutes before Grahame-White started for the statue from the park, Count Jacques De Lesseps of France made the first start for the Statue of Liberty that has been made at the meet. Count De Lesseps got away at 3:05 o'clock in a Bleriot monoplane of fifty-horsepower and made the trip out and return successfully, but his time was 41 minutes, 50.25 seconds, or about 7 minutes and 15 seconds slower than Moissant.

Moissant and Grahame-White cut for the trip to the statue in a bee line as soon as they got high enough in the air to see the goddess and the captive balloon which the bronze girl from France was flying above the bay to guide the aviators toward her. De Lesseps left the aviation field along a high air lane that headed more directly into the west or somewhat to the north of the course taken later by Grahame-White and Moissant. Also when it came to swinging around for the return trip at the statue, De Lesseps circled the statue itself, flying so wide that his machine zipped above Black Tom's island, over near the Jersey shore; whereas Moissant and Grahame-White were content to circle only the balloon, which the twelve or fifteen miles an hour wind had blown about 500 feet from the statue's head.

Moissant and Grahame-White therefore passed between the balloon and the head of the statue on their return trip and did not go around the Goddess of Liberty at all. But according to the rules of the contest they were required to swing around the captive balloon only. The American's victory sent the crowd, which totaled nearly 40,000 people, into a state of ecstasy that might conservatively be called a frenzy. The exercises on grandstand, lawn and field when Moissant's daring needle swam back home out of the golden blue of sunset and lit upon the grass tips of the field a winner reminded one of the dear dead days at Belmont, when a four-legged animal used for racing in earlier days and known as the horse, pounded past the grandstand with all the money.

When the little Chicago architect of the high cheek bones and the shallow face had climbed to the platform of the judge's stand to bow his acknowledgments, someone threw an American flag around Johnny's shoulders. His long residence in Central America had taught him to throw it around him quickly in proper Spanish fashion as he bowed and bowed and bowed nervously. And now that Johnny was up where he could be properly cheered, all that had gone before was as the silent greeting father gets at the breakfast table when he comes up for air after still another fall off the wagon. When the humans were hoarse, the officials grabbed Johnny again and led him down the steps and across the clubhouse lawn to the spot inside where the glasses click and tinkle.

From the minute that Moissant came out of the sunset his two sisters were the most excited people on the field. They were running around in circles, looking over the shoulders of those who held spot-watches, holding their thumbs and jumping up and down. Louise and Tillie are their names, and they also hailed from Chicago. Fred Moissant, the brother from San Salvador, stood with the working force of the Moissant shed gathered around him, and everybody in the neighborhood was rooting for the approaching flyer. They pumped their fists up and down and shouted, "Come on, Moissant!" in that pleasing way that people have when they are hunching a racer.

"He's got two minutes to beat Grahame-White," yelled a face above a watch, and the sisters howled, "John, John, hurry up!" Every tick brought them hope and fear, and then hope again. That plane seemed to creep until it crossed the boundary of the park and after that to drive like a javelin over the line. The whole Moissant family and its rooters scattered down to the starter's booth in the middle of the hangar line. In a jiffy they came racing back, waving their arms, shouting at the top of their lungs: "He's won! He's won! He's won!" sang the two girls whose faces are counterparts of their brother's.

The contagion spread. Perfectly strange shoulders were clapped and handshakes went around like hymn-books at a camp-meeting. It was a hullabaloo that would not die down.

The first things that came to Moissant when he reached his camp were salutations, after the manner of their kind, from the members of his family. And then after all the handshakes the flier and his sisters stood up against the wall and were photographed with a background of the American flag. One who watched the three of them standing there was almost compelled to believe that they were pleased about something.

The hourly altitude flight did not develop anything startling. Simon and Parrier, the Frenchmen, and Radley, the Englishman, all went aloft in Bleriot machines. Hoxsey and Johnston, the reliable star-scrapers who hitherto had made every altitude event a feature of the day's meet, did not compete. The Wright brothers do not believe in flying on Sunday, even toward heaven.

LAST WEEK OF BATTLE BUSY FOR ROOSEVELT

The Colonel Has Strenuous Program Mapped Out.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 31.—The last week of Colonel Roosevelt's whirling about the country began today. If Mr. Roosevelt follows his schedule, he will put in one of the liveliest weeks that he has had since he returned from the lion hunt, and that's going some. It is not with exuberant spirits that Roosevelt is looking forward to the tour of Manhattan that the state committee has mapped out for tonight. He has meetings all over town on the program. As soon as the last meeting is over, they will hustle the colonel to the station so that he can catch the midnight train for Buffalo. Tomorrow morning he will speak in a number of places along the line, the big speech of the day to be in Buffalo. He will return to New York Wednesday morning, remaining long enough to have breakfast, and then pull out for Baltimore. There he will dine with the Methodist bishops and make a speech to the teachers and students of Goucher college.

After that the colonel will start for the west. He is due to arrive in Davenport, Ia., on Friday morning. There will be a two-hour stop in Chicago Thursday night. In the afternoon he will visit Des Moines and during the day he will deliver car-end speeches whenever he gets a chance. But Saturday in Ohio gives promise of even more interest than the other visit. After Senator Foraker's attack of a week ago upon the "New Nationalism," there was some curiosity as to what Mr. Roosevelt would do. As things stand now he will do just as he planned. His present intention is to deliver the same kind of addresses that he has been delivering here. He is due to land in New York next Sunday. Following a day of quiet at Sagamore Hill he will go to town on Monday to put on the finishing touches to the campaign he has been making for Harry Stinson. And then he says he will be silent.

Jury Could Not Agree. Springfield, Ill., Oct. 31.—The jury in the trial of State Senator Pemberton and Representative Clark on the charge of bribery in connection with the purchase of furnishings for the state legislature, reported to the court it was unable to reach an agreement and was discharged. State Attorney Burke declared the case would be retried at once.

DECLARES THAT STATE OWES HIM

Former Indiana Forester Asserts Examiners Made Mistakes.

DEHORITY TO INVESTIGATE

Chief of the Indiana State Board of Accounts Promises That He Will Make a Personal Report on the Case—Recently Published Unofficial Report Declared by the Examiners to Be in Error.

Indianapolis, Oct. 31.—W. H. Freeman, former state forester, and at present building and loan clerk in the auditor of state's office, declares that instead of owing the state of Indiana any sum, the state owes him $14. Mr. Freeman made this declaration after examining the report of the field examiners, W. A. Marsh and I. D. Wiest, and the vouchers and receipts on file in the auditor of state's office. The former state forester admits an error of $2 in addition, but asserts that a confusion of vouchers and the failure of the examiners to add the receipts attached to one of the vouchers accounts for the examiners' mistake.

W. A. Dehority state examiner, said that he had been in conference with Mr. Freeman and that they had talked about the alleged shortage. He said he had told Mr. Freeman that the state board of accounts would be willing to correct any error that had been made and that a re-examination would be made, after which he would issue a statement covering the examination.

Mr. Freeman cites as further evidence in his charge that the examination was made for political purposes the fact that after the investigation of his own administration and an examination of the books of his successor, Charles C. Deam, for the first few months of the latter's administration, had been completed, the examiners left the office of the state forester without making any examination at all of the books of Mr. Deam from Sept. 30, 1909, to Sept. 30, 1910.

Mr. Freeman asserts that his successor's books would have been audited to Sept. 30, 1910, as has been the practice in other instances, if the state board of accounts had not desired particular information concerning his administration alone.

W. A. Marsh, one of the examiners, who inspected Mr. Freeman's books, declared that they never had made direct charges of $1,028.22 against Mr. Freeman, as indicated in an unofficial report, but that the only specific charge included in their report was one of $112.22, including $100 difference between the voucher given by Ramey L. Freeman for the purchase of an option and the checks covering the voucher $10.22, representing a difference between voucher No. 93,987 and the expenditures noted on the back of the voucher, and $2, an error in addition.

Mr. Marsh asserted that this voucher had been inspected in the office of the secretary of the state board of forestry and was supposed to be a duplicate of the one on file in the auditor of state's office, to which the receipts were attached. Mr. Freeman declares the voucher in question was for $950 and the receipts attached for $969. Mr. Freeman lost $16, the difference between the receipts and the vouchers, because there was but $950 in the fund upon which the receipts were drawn.

STRANGE CASE

Negro Found Wandering Streets of Evansville With Knife in Back.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 31.—John Stark, colored, whose home is thought to be in Indianapolis, was found by the police wandering half conscious on a street with a knife stuck to the hilt in his back. He was bleeding profusely. It is believed at St. Mary's hospital that he will die. The story, as far as he can tell it, is that he started from the Evansville & Terre Haute station to the Louisville & Nashville station with a strange negro to show him the way. The negro led him through an alley and knocked him down and stabbed him.

Claims Self-Defense.

Princeton, Ind., Oct. 31.—Marshal Tom Wester, who shot and killed Jack Hardin, a deaf and dumb man, at Oakland City, is here in charge of Sheriff Skelton, having given himself up. Wester said he shot in self-defense.

HOW TO VOTE.

When you enter the voting booth three ballots will be handed to you, one State, one county and one township.
To vote the Republican ticket make an X (cross) entirely within the circle surrounding the eagle on the State, county and township ballots.

It is not strange that Taggart seeks control of the State government. He doubtless is anxious to prevent any more raids on the French Lick gambling joint.

Willis J. Abbott, the well known political writer says: "Roosevelt has lost his hold in Indiana." Perhaps he has and perhaps he hasn't. Usually when Teddy loses his grip it is only when he decides to relinquish his hold.

It is said that Judge Lindsay of Colorado has written to Senator Beveridge that he would like to come to Indiana to "help protect child, home and justice." The judge assumes too much. Indiana is not in a state of anarchy. The child and home are fully protected and justice rules. The Hoosiers are not savages.

Tonight is Hallowe'en night with all its pranks and jollity. It is said that the custom is a relic of early pagan times. Of course it is. Are we not the heirs of all the ages and customs of our forefathers, as well as their thoughts on things visible and invisible, dominate us all more or less and unconsciously? The Christian missionary of today, if he would succeed, must in part graft on his religion to whatever of the others he would have a man converted from. Christianity made its headway by giving its new converts the privilege of keeping to many of their old practices. The most of the pranks of the Hallowe'en are simply modifications of old Druidic rites of worship. It was a celebration of a holiday on the eve of the holy day of All Hallows.

The adroitness of the coal barons is again illustrated by the word sent abroad that the usual coal famine is threatened. For some peculiar reason, which it would probably be useless to elucidate here, coal famines always are threatened just when they would be most inconvenient.

The act for a genuine, non-partisan tariff commission written by Senator Aldridge and supported by Republican congressmen and senators, is a business proposition that more and more comends itself to the people. It would mean the taking of the tariff largely out of politics and prevent the unsettling of business by the injection of the tariff fight into long and bitter campaigns. The country is practically committed to the tariff principle and the fair and intelligent adjustment is needed of the schedules so as to provide for the protection of American business and labor without furnishing unreasonable benefits to any interests is what the country asks. To do this the fact must be had and these such a tariff commission as is proposed could obtain.

There is nothing like a written or a printed record to clinch a fact. People may forget for a time the dark days from 1893 to 1896, but the types of that day tell a story that soon revives memory. The Cincinnati Enquirer then as now owned and published by John R. McLean and credited with being the leading Democratic paper in the middle-west, said on October 24, 1894:

"Never during the four years of the Civil war, was the credit of the country or of corporations or individuals so strained as during the first eight months of the present administration of Mr. Cleveland. The American people have lost more money by the shrinkage of values in property since the second inauguration of Mr. Cleveland than was expended for the suppression of the rebellion."

The people in 1896 rejected the remedy for these Democratic evils offered by another brand of Democracy and restored the Republican party to power. The prosperity that followed, for all classes has been unprecedented. What the Enquirer said in 1894 is history. On November 8th the people will vote either to continue the present safe and prosperous conditions or take chances on a repetition of what is sent out in the Enquirer statement quoted above.

A Democratic House of Representatives would be a calamity to the country because of the check of beneficial Republican legislation already started. But serious as is this view of the situation, of far greater import is the legislation that will be actually attempted—that is the bills which will pass the House which can not become laws because of a Republican Senate and President. We need only consider one of such bills, namely a Democratic tariff act. It will not be an attempt to improve the present law, it will be a straight out complete revision looking to revenue only. The fact that such bill for two years can not become a law will not prevent consternation from taking possession of every industrial center and business community in the land. Anxiety and fear will be found in every bank, every counting house, every factory and store from ocean to ocean. Purchases will cease and production will cease, and the consequences will be widespread. All will be seriously affected—the farmer next after the factory worker, then the railroads. All will be marking time and will be waiting to see what 1912 will bring.

Bookwalter announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Bookwalter, to George W. Bliss, son of Mrs. George W. Bliss, the wedding to take place in January.

AMUSEMENTS

The Star Grand offers two Selig subjects tonight. The first is a comedy drama entitled "A Cold Storage Romance." One would never give a simple egg the credit of furnishing the material for a real romance. Nevertheless stranger things have happened and Samantha Higgins was thoroughly imbued with the romanticism characteristic of a blushing maid of seventeen summers. The second subject is entitled "My Friend, the Doctor", and is an amusing comedy based upon the ever common error of your friend, the doctor, who gives you by mistake the medicine he had prepared for another patient. The result is a comedy well worth while. Earl Robertson will sing "I Won't be Back Till August."

The Palace has for tonight a Vitagraph film, entitled "Renunciation." It is a very romantic story of the son of an aristocratic father who is in love with a chorus girl. The father objects to his going with her and the son is equally determined to do so. The girl shows herself to be a very clever actress and is given a position by a manager who is a friend of the hero's father. This is the connecting link and they are brought together. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Vaudet has for tonight a Nestors film, "Frontier Days in the West." It is a great story of the early days in the West, showing the perils the early inhabitants were compelled to undergo. No details are omitted to make the picture complete. A new illustrated song will be sung.

PADUCAH POLICEMAN SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Attack Follows Investigation of Similar Murder.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 31.—Patrolman Leslie Ogilvie was picked up for dead early Sunday morning, his helmet pierced with three bullets and a gaping wound in his neck near the base of the brain. Efforts were at once made to apprehend the assassin, who shot the officer from ambush near his home. Bloodhounds were secured, but when they were taken to the spot where a hat was found in the bushes when the shots were thought to have been fired, they were seized with violent coughing and sneezing and could not be induced to take the trail. The ground for several yards around the bush from behind which the shot came, was liberally sprinkled with red pepper.

The attack on the officer is believed to be the outcome of his investigation of the mysterious killing of Frank McManus, a brewer, who was shot from ambush near his home less than a block from the residence of the policeman. Ogilvie's wounds are regarded as fatal.

No Unfavorable Symptoms.
 South Bend, Ind., Oct. 31.—Senator Benjamin F. Shively, recently operated upon, is out of danger. No unfavorable symptoms have developed since the operation, say the physicians.

BERLIN AGAIN IN A TURMOIL

Strike Riots Break Out With Renewed Fury.

FURTHER TROUBLE IS FEARED

A Small Strike Led to a Recurrence of Riots Almost as Fierce as Those Which Recently Turned the Moabit Section into a Scene of Bloodshed—Mounted Police Charge Crowd With Swords, Wounding Many.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—A riot emulating the recent Moabit outbreak started suddenly Saturday evening in northern Berlin. The trouble originated in a strike of fifteen butchers, who resented the dismissal of a co-worker. The strikers and their sympathizers stoned the employer, and while the Saturday night trade was at its height they abused and hustled customers. A huge crowd gathered and the employer telephoned for the police, whose appearance as usual was as a red rag to the mob. The first attempt of the police to clear the street led to fighting, which went through the customary features, the mob showering missiles and the police charging. The latter eventually triumphed and the bulk of the force was withdrawn, whereupon the rioters gathered again, and with the re-arrival of the police the fighting became worse. Mounted police charged the mob with drawn swords, while the rioters pelted them with bottles, bricks and other missiles. Some revolvers were fired. The streets were dark, the strikers having extinguished the lamps. Somebody summoned the fire department. When the latter arrived the mob attacked the engines and tried to wreck them. Many rioters and policemen were wounded. The tumult lasted until 2 o'clock in the morning. The district is patrolled by armed police, who predict a renewal of the trouble.

JURY FIXING

This Is the Latest Scandal in the Lee O'Neil Browne Case.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Discovery of new sources of information has resulted in the uncovering of a mass of alleged corruption and bribery that attended the acquittal of Lee O'Neil Browne, Democratic minority leader, of the charge of bribing legislators to vote for William Lorimer for United States senator.

It is now charged that a majority of the twelve men who voted to discharge Browne held a wine dinner and "rounding-up" fete at night in places of amusement less than a week after the verdict was returned. In this function Attorney Charles Erbsstein, one of the trio of lawyers who represented Browne, and who now is charged with having "fixed" at least one juror, is declared to have played an important part.

But despite this open jollification evidence of the use of money in handling the case might not have reached the state's attorney but for the fact that two men who are already self-confessed—Juror Grant McCutcheon and Harry T. Stacy, a chauffeur—were dissatisfied with the amount paid them and believed they were being "double-crossed." McCutcheon, the juror, and Stacy, the man who "discovered" him and admits he fixed him under the direction of Attorney Erbsstein, says they expected more than the meager $125 paid them. In this connection the name of Representative Erickson, who was supposed to be in possession of political pulls and the ability to get jobs, is brought in by the two men.

At any rate, their jobs were not forthcoming and, according to their stories, they got but the $125 and nothing like the large amount of money they expected.

BAIL FORFEITED

This Convicted Pittsburg Graftor Didn't Appear When Wanted.

Pittsburg, Oct. 31.—Hugh Ferguson, attorney-councilman-graftor, who was sentenced to eight months in the Alhageny jail, is missing and his bail has been forfeited. Sheriff Bruff has issued a capias for his arrest wherever found. Ferguson is worth $500,000, and while his close friends say he will likely turn up soon and begin serving his time, the fact remains that he did not appear in court when ordered and no one, not even his family, appears to know where he is. The bondsmen of Ferguson, who must stand for $10,000, admit grudgingly that they have been ordered to satisfy the county by paying the money.

Fall May Prove Fatal.

Huntington, Ind., Oct. 31.—While on his way to Marion, where he was to have been married, James Forashell fell from the rear platform of an M. E. & E. car at Warren and was injured, probably fatally.

French Premier Sustained.

Paris, Oct. 31.—After five days' debate Premier Briand obtained substantial majorities in the chamber of deputies Sunday evening in the votes on the interpellations on the railway strike.

SIDE TALKS ON PUBLIC AFFAIRS

By Old John Henry.

To the Editor:

I do not know that the Indiana farmer needs any political advice this year, but I shall address a few words to him, anyway.

One thing most of us regard as first, the matter of voting, in itself. Get out and vote. See that your neighbor votes. The right to vote carries with it the duty to vote.

The citizen is the government. Don't be a foolish sovereign or a silly sovereign, and stay at home when government is in the making, and when policies are being shaped for your weal or for your woe.

Mr. Farmer, you are for the protective principle or you are against it. Put yourself on record for or against. You are for the existing prices or you are for lower prices. Put yourself on record, one way or the other.

Our friends, the Democrats, say prices are too high. Republicans ask you to compare the prices you get today with the prices you received in 1896. Republicans ask you which you prefer. What is your answer? Record that answer at the polls.

If you want to go back to the era of low prices, vote the Democratic ticket and accept the policies which promise low prices.

If you desire to continue the era of good prices and good times, with the millions at work and your markets constantly expanding, vote the Republican ticket and boost Republican principles such as we operate under at this time.

You, Mr. Farmer, having bought more land, under the good promise of lasting prosperity, are interested in having the value of that land increased, or sustained, rather than decreased or cut down.

You know the value of your land lies in the value of the crops that come from the land. Your wheat land is twice as valuable when it gives you $1 wheat as it was when it gave you 45 cents wheat in 1896. Your corn land keeps better value when it raises 70 cent corn than it did in the days when corn was 15 to 23 cents and you burned it for fuel. Thirty-five cent oats means better land values than 20 cent oats. Hay at $16.50 a ton, as it is this year, lends part of its value to the land, and it is better for you, Mr. Farmer, than $8.50 hay, under Democratic prices.

Take hogs at $8.85 to $9.15 a hundred, and it is worth while to raise corn to fatten them. The hog crop, in its turn, makes farming more profitable, and farm land worth having. It was not so in 1896, under Democratic prices, when hogs were $3.15 a hundred in the Indianapolis market.

It is a good thing for the farmer to think beyond and through the prices he gets for his products, and to consider the comforts and advantages that accrue to his home and family as a result of his profits.

Now we all admit the farmer's prices are fair only; that he is justly entitled to partake of prosperity in full measure, and that he is getting no more than is coming to him today.

Does he want a change? And if there is to be a change, does he desire to take what Democrats propose, a revenue-only tariff, uncertainty, agitation, and lower prices for products?

How about it, Mr. Farmer?

Does it not look to you as if the vote in the box November 8 ought to count "one" for the continuance of good times, expanding markets, just prices, fair profits, and opportunity for the children?

OLD JOHN HENRY.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS

W. J. Bryan got an awful prospect bump in Indiana.

Col. Bryan refused to show his colors in Indiana this year.

Tom Taggart has called on the mud battery reserves, and has sent them into action already.

John Kern will not be so hilariously humorous when he gets through explaining the corporation joker he slipped into the liability law in 1893.

Compare the Republican and Democratic state tickets, man for man, and you will vote the Republican ticket as a measure of safety and common gumption.

The Democratic legislature of 1909, from its jackpot caucus to its plunder-fest and on to the climax of mismanagement which has disordered the public finances, did nothing to inspire public confidence. If the voters judge Democrats by their fruits, there will be mighty few Democratic lawmakers at the state house in 1911.

How many damage suits has John W. Kern won for the railroads and against the injured employee under the joker he slipped into the Indiana liability law in 1893? The records of the Marion county courts carry many of these cases. By Kern's own word, given in 1903, he has been a railroad lawyer, riding on railroad passes.

Attacks Protection.

Our onslaught is upon the doctrine of protection in its entirety.—Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic governor of Indiana. Same old onslaught in the same old way. November 12.

Modern Life Would Be Too Hard on the Nerves If It Were Not For Want Advertising

The pace of life has become tense.

Worries, disappointments, up-sets at home and office, losses, discouragements seem to multiply as daily life becomes more complex.

The property owner, who MUST have a steady income from rents or lose his property, is "racked" by the untimely defection of a tenant. Some classified advertising quickly retrieves his loss—and quiets his nerves!

The salary-earner unexpectedly loses his position—and his peace-of-mind. The strain would shortly "break" something in his nervous system, if, once more, want advertising did not find the better job—and restore him his mental equilibrium.

In every phase of the city's life, every day, the Want Ads play the part of the peace-maker. They SERVE you and me at some crisis in our lives—and keep the modern pace and tension from proving too fast and tight for US.

Truly, the Want Ads ARE FOR SERVICE!

REPUBLICANS HAVE BIG TIME

W. N. Harding of Indianapolis Addresses Large Crowd at Milroy Rally Saturday Afternoon.

MADE AN ELOQUENT TALK

John Kiplinger and A. E. Martin Made Speeches in Evening to Good Audience.

As the closing event of a successful all-day Republican rally at Milroy Saturday, John Kiplinger and A. E. Martin addressed a large crowd in the high school auditorium. The people of Milroy and vicinity did themselves justice and turned out in large numbers to hear the issues of the campaign discussed in a most creditable manner. Mr. Kiplinger, the first speaker of the evening, confined his remarks to the tariff, from the standpoint of the benefits derived by the farmer. He pointed out the increase in value of farm products and showed that they had increased in value four times since 1899. This theory of a tariff for revenue only is all wrong as the protection has shown. Mr. Kiplinger made a most convincing talk and was well received.

Mr. Martin interested his hearers with an able discussion of the various phases of the campaign. He showed where the Democrats had advocated the passage of a guarantee bank deposit bill and this proved false. But in place of this the Republican party had passed the postal savings law and that this was to be tried out in forty-eight of the principal cities of the country. Mr. Martin made a forcible speech and the audience was well pleased.

The people began to come in early Saturday morning and by noon Milroy was crowded with visitors from the surrounding county. It was by far the best and largest rally Milroy ever had and everyone was satisfied. The Clarksburg band furnished music for the occasion.

William N. Harding of Indianapolis delivered the principal address of the afternoon. Mr. Harding, while not a candidate for office, has always had the interests of the Republican party at heart and delivered one of the best speeches ever heard in Milroy. The auditorium of the high school was crowded to overflowing and the people received Mr. Harding with great enthusiasm.

Several politicians and candidates from here journeyed to Milroy to attend the rally and returned that night after hearing Messrs. Kiplinger and Martin.

NEW CASTLE HAS IDEA ABOUT LIGHTS

Knightstown Gives "Tip" When Town Board There Gives Free Electricity For Porch Lights.

POINT TO LOCAL IMPROVEMENT

The town board of Knightstown has adopted an ordinance granting free electricity for one porch light where consumers are now using electricity for lighting or to consumers hereafter adopting that form of lighting, says the New Castle Times. It is provided that the lamp shall be placed in the best position to assist in lighting the street, this being the purpose of the movement, and the lamp shall be wired off the mains before the current goes through the meter. The lamp is to be of a kind approved by the superintendent and must not be burned during the daylight.

At Rushville the city is installing the kind of lights such as are displayed in front of the Light, Heat & Power Co.'s office here and the merchants furnish the current to light them. Broad street in this city would look first-class with lights of this character along it from the depot to the court house.

PRaises WORK OF LOCAL TRAINER

Indianapolis Sporting Writer Rehearses Story of Life of Alcyfras in Harrie Jones' Stable.

RACE MARE IS WONDERFUL

Trainer Thinks She Will Break Records Next Year—Used Patience in Training Erratic Horse.

Together with an excellent picture of Alcyfras and her driver, Harrie Jones up, the following story of the mare's record appeared in this morning's Star:

There are few people interested in light harness horses who are not familiar with the little roan mare Alcyfras 2:03 1/4, owned by D. W. Northrop of Grand Rapids, Mich., and driven by the clever reinsman, Harrie Jones of Rushville.

Alcyfras was sired by Alcyon 2:15, one of the greatest trotters in his day, her first dam, Sassafras (the dam of Alcyfras 2:03 1/4, Ed M. 2:08 1/4, Star Direct 2:08 3/4) by Almont Boy; second dam by the great sire of pacers, Brown Hal 2:12 1/4. She is 6 years old, about 15 hands high, weighs about 900 pounds, a mare of strong conformation and is absolutely sound. She was started in the racing game in 1908, when she got a record of 2:17 1/4. In 1909 she started a few times, and at Grand Rapids, Mich., at the August meeting, she was second in 2:09 1/4, and the judges, thinking she had not been driven to win, suspended the mare and driver (Mr. Clark) for thirty days, which kept her from racing until September.

The latter part of that month she obtained a record of 2:06 3/4 at Columbus, O., but showed to be one of the worst mannered mares for a fast animal there was to be found racing anywhere, and in the fall, after the Lexington meeting in 1909, she was pronounced by every one who had seen her race to be absolutely worthless as a race mare. In January of 1910 her owner made arrangements with Harrie Jones of Rushville to take the mare to train and race in 1910. He shipped her to Rushville in the month of February. Her owner states that he had considered a great many different trainers to take her in 1910, but knowing her peculiarities and bad manners, decided to send her to Mr. Jones, as he knew Jones had had some very bad mannered ones, and very erratic horses, that had been thrown aside by good trainers as worthless, and with which Mr. Jones had made a success.

Such horses as the blind stallion New Richmond (2:07 1/4), the erratic John Ward (2:05 1/4), which won the world's record for green 5-year-old pacing stallions in 1908; Edwin T. (2:09 1/4), Allen G. (2:10), Effie Afton (2:10 1/4), Windhorst (2:10 1/4), were taken by Mr. Jones, who gave each and every one their present records and raced them successfully.

It has been with a great deal of skill, patience and kindness (Mr. Jones says principally the latter) that he has made a success with this mare. His first start with her was at Detroit, at the Blue Ribbon meeting, where he gave her a record of 2:04 3/4. The next week he shipped her to Lansing, Mich., where she beat a very strong field of horses, and lowered the track record held by Hedgewood Boy (2:01) to 2:05 1/4. She raced until the first week in September, when she had a week off and was shipped to the mile track at Rushville.

That week the fair association asked Mr. Jones for an exhibition, but he left a hesitancy, as the mare had never been over a half-mile track, and the turns were very abrupt, making it the more difficult for a fast mile, but he finally consented to attempt to beat the track record, which was 2:12 3/4, held by Aileen Wilson, a great half-mile track mare (she made five attempts before she went this mile) in 1908. Alcyfras had little trouble beating the record, going a mile in 2:09, and timed by a great many watches on the outside at 2:08 1/4 and 2:08 3/4.

Her next start of note was at the

Are Proud of Their Game

In the absence of the nut and acorn crop in this locality this fall, our little friends, the squirrels, are facing a very serious situation, unless kindhearted people come to their assistance and place a supply of corn where they can get it and fill up their winter store houses. Without something of this kind there will certainly be many of the poor things starved to death the coming winter. There are no nuts of any kind except a few hazel nuts, nor do acorns seem any more plentiful than the hickory nuts. As one man remarked the squirrels will have to be excused for raiding the corn fields for their winter's supply. Where the squirrels are not convenient to corn fields, as is the case in many places, they will have to migrate unless kindhearted persons volunteer to place the corn or other grain where they can get it.
